WHEELING, APRIL 26, 1892.

Republican State Convention!

At a meeting of the State Central Committee, held at the city of Parkersburg, on February 23, 1892, it was ordered that a State Convention be held at the city of Martinsburg, on THURSDAY, the 5th day of May, 1892, to elect four (4) Delegates-at-Large and four (4) Alternates-at-Large to the Republican National Convention, to be held at the city of Minneapolis, Minnesota, on Tuesday, the 7th day of June, 1892, to nominate candidates to be supported for the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States; and also, in view of the change in the arrangement of the several Senatorial districts of this State, to elect members of the State Republican Central Committee, consisting of one person from each Senatorial district.

The Executive Committee of each county is requested to take early steps to secure each county represented in the State Convention, as well as in the Congressional District Conventions to elect district delegates and alternates to said National Convention, and it is recommended that each county elect one delegate to said State Convention for each one hundred (100) votes or fraction thereof greater than fifty (50) cast therein for President Harrison in 1888.

The Congressional District Conventions above referred to, will be held as follows: First district at Parkersburg, on May 6; Second district at Martinsburg, on May 7; Third district at Hinton, on May 8; Fourth district at Point Pleasant, on April 20.

AUGUSTUS POLLACK, Chairman.

WM. M. O. DAWSON, Secretary.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL District Convention.

It is ordered that a District Convention of Republicans, and all others who favor the policy of Protection to American laborers, farmers and manufacturers and a sound currency, shall be held at Parkersburg, May 6, 1892, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of choosing two delegates and two alternate delegates, to represent the First Congressional District in the National Republican Convention to be held in the city of Minneapolis, in the State of Minnesota, on the 7th day of June, 1892, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President, to be voted for at the next general election, and for transacting such other business as may be brought before said convention. The Executive Committee of each county is requested to take early steps to have each county represented at said Convention. It is recommended that each county select one delegate for each one hundred (100) votes or fraction thereof cast therein for President Harrison in 1888.

W. F. STATHERS, Chairman.

J. C. BRADY, Secretary.

THE approaching contest is rendered especially important by reason of the industrial and financial policies of the Government being at stake. The popular decision on these issues is of great moment and will be of far-reaching consequence.—James G. Blaine.

Where is the Importance?

Yesterday the Associated Press newspapers printed this dispatch from Swansea:

SWANSEA, April 24.—It is stated that owing to the depression in the British tin plate trade resulting from the workings of the McKinley tariff the proprietors of a number of the largest tin plate factories in Wales intend to erect works in America.

The Register headed it, "Important if True." What reason has the Register for challenging the accuracy of this dispatch? Isn't it to be supposed that the state of the Welsh tin plate industry is known in Swansea?

It is a well known fact that the tin plate industry in Wales is depressed. It is equally well known that the McKinley act, which seeks to establish the tin plate industry in this country, is responsible for the depression on the other side of the water.

The only feature of the dispatch that can be questioned is the assertion that proprietors of a number of the largest tin plate factories in Wales intend to erect works in America.

Why does the Register consider this "important if true?" What would it mean if it were known to be true? What would be the special significance of Welshmen establishing tin plate factories in this country?

It would be a pleasure to hear from our neighbor on this subject.

An Interesting Little Movement.

Some of Chauncey M. Depew's friends in his own state are moving to get delegates in his interest for the presidential nomination. They represent that he is thoroughly honest and unquestionably capable, that he would run well and be elected.

Mr. Depew is one of the able men of the day. If he were without his railroad entanglements he would be one of the most popular men in the country and would run well for anything.

Everybody who knows him likes him. He makes friends where ever he goes. He has a decided talent for rubbing people the right way. But he will not be nominated for the presidency.

No party would run the risk of presenting to the people for President the head of a great railroad system. It may be argued that the prejudice is without reason, but the prejudice exists and a national convention takes note of these things. At Chicago in 1888 Mr. Depew was pressed by his friends, but the convention did not take his case seriously.

After the convention was over Mr. Depew met a goodly company of the grangers who had threatened war if he were nominated and captured them by addressing them as "fellow grangers," following this up with one of his happy talks. The Depew movement may be entertaining; it cannot be more.

Accommodations at Minneapolis. Some time ago the INTELLIGENCER had some inquiries made as to accommodations in Minneapolis. The unsatisfactory result of that investigation was published. A local convention committee jumped on the publication with all the feet it could command. The committee hurried back the scornful reply of the hotel keepers, who insisted that everything was lovely and the goose was hanging high.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch made an investigation and found that not more than 30,000 persons could be accommodated in Minneapolis and St. Paul and their surroundings including the summer resorts. Mr. Dwight Lawrence, who has had some experience in convention cities, has been to Minneapolis to arrange for the New York delegation. The Philadelphia Ledger gives the result of his observations:

Mr. Lawrence says that the convention hall is all that could be desired, fully the equal of Madison Square Garden, but that in every other respect the town is wholly unsuited for such a gathering as is to be expected. Prices for lodgings in the principal hotels range from $30 a day for a parlor and two bedrooms to $12 a day for a single bedroom in which three delegates can sleep. Mr. Lawrence says further: "Many in attendance upon the convention will have to go out of the city to find beds. But the sleeping question is not nearly as important as the eating question. There is a wonderful lack of restaurants in Minneapolis, and Mr. Lawrence wonders how the multitude is to be fed. He advises that delegates and others intending to go to Minneapolis club together and hire a Pullman or Wagner car for the convention week. There is ample track facilities in the city, and the car can be made to stop at any of the hotels and take their meals in it. The newspaper correspondent, who has all of the hard work and none of the fun of a political convention, will have a specially difficult time of it."

If these statements be not true Minneapolis should make it plain that they are false. That would be reassuring.

Where Gorman May Come In.

If the country had not been prepared for the announcement it would be startled to hear that Mr. Gorman has quietly shied his castor into the presidential ring and is a "real righty" candidate, although as yet he has not turned loose any brass band nor gone to the cost of working up delegations.

Mr. Gorman bases his hopes on the idea that neither Hill nor Cleveland can be nominated; in which case the convention will be straining its eyes scanning the horizon in search of an available man. This is where Mr. Gorman expects to come in.

He does not regard himself as greater than his party, perhaps not even as being great in the positive degree; but when it comes to turning out of the boxes ballots that were never polled he modestly permits himself to think that Cleveland is nowhere and Hill hardly a good second.

This is what the Democratic party must have, and lots of it, if it is to have any chance of success next November.

Not the Man.

Mr. Murat Halstead says there is no truth that he is to be appointed to the vacant mission to France. He would make a splendid representative there or elsewhere, but the senate which refused to confirm him as minister to Germany would probably give renewed assurances of its distinguished resentment and smallness of mind if he were named for any other mission.

Mr. Halstead has shown that he can get along without the favor of the senate. Indeed, the spiteful behavior of that body seems to have put him on his mettle to do some of the best work of his brilliant career.

The Jewish congregation of Temple Emanuel, New York, are said to contemplate "a crusade of conversions among the Christians." If they convert Christians no faster than Christians convert Jews they will have their trouble for their pains. And to speak of a Jewish crusade shows how far that word has got away from its original meaning. Crusade comes from the Latin crux, a cross.

The discovery of silver in paying quantities in the rocks of Central Park is to some extent a vindication of Tammany. If the silver and the rocks have remained all these years Tammany is not the dishonest organization it has been said to be. It is of course barely possible that the silver is not there in paying quantities; in which case it would not pay to steal the everlasting rocks.

REPUBLICAN statesmen are gathering at Cleveland and laying lines for their State convention as though this were to be the last great effort of their lives. There is a good deal of skirmishing over the delegates-at-large, and some who look fondly on that honor will have to wait for about four years more.

THE WEST VIRGINIA Republican is the latest addition to the field of journalism of the state. It is published at Charleston, by Messrs. Jarrett & Forsyth and advocates Republican principles. It gives promise of success.

ALL the women will be for Depew when they know what he says about them: "In nine cases out of ten the wife has more common sense than the husband." And, he might have added, the uncommon sense, too.

DURLEST FOX, having fired and missed and been fired at and not hit, was pleased to remark, "I feel like a fool." No similar appreciation of the situation was expressed by Mr. Borrowe.

If Fox and Borrowe will go on the stage with that Belgian duel Sullivan and Muldoon and the rest of the fakers will have to retire. Wouldn't that be a drawing card!

THE Borrowe-Fox duel, we regret to know, is looked on by London clubmen as a huge joke. Is Mr. Fox's wounded coat a joke?

WHEN the colored men meet in convention in Chicago they will do their race and the country a service if they devise means to remedy the evils of which they complain. White men inflict them and other white men seem powerless to root them out.

WHEN we make it plain to European nations that we do not intend to make this country a dumping ground for the silver of the world they will look with more favor on a monetary conference to see what can be done about the question. We can press them into it if we will.

GORMAN as a presidential candidate must swell the manly bosoms of the Plug Uglies in politics.

The once dark alleys are very grateful for the electric light that has been shed into them.

STATE POLITICS.

Year by year the independent Democrats increase who desire a change in the management of this state until in Lewis county alone at least fifty will support the Republican nominee for governor. They are numerous who declare publicly that the mismanagement of the hospital for the insane has become intolerably bad, and that they will not vote to continue it any longer. The only prerequisite has been to belong to one of the boss's families. Brains is ignored, and it is a well established fact no young men of intellectuality can ever hope to occupy a lucrative or honorable position in any of West Virginia's state institutions unless he marries into some of the favored families. Young physicians of culture and professional prominence have been turned down by the score when they applied for the position which as a rule are occupied by mental lilliputians.—Weston Republican.

Congressman Capohart, of the Fourth district, writing to the Jackson Beagle thus explains his vote on the silver bill: "I can only speak for myself and say that I felt that I was virtually acting under instructions. I was elected to Congress in 1890 and in that year our State convention in the Fourth district, in their platform, declared for the free and unlimited coinage of silver. In voting for the Bland bill, I believe that I represented my people faithfully. If they have changed their minds on this subject since 1890 I have not been made aware of the fact, and I do not believe such is the case."

They were discussing the liquor habit around the stove in the drug store.

"Well, what do you think of the bichloride of gold treatment as practiced by Dr. Keeley?" asked a young fellow with a strong odor of cigarettes on his clothes.

"Great thing," responded an old fellow with a faded red nose; "I've been voting the Democratic ticket for forty years, and I left Dwight after four weeks' treatment a straight-out stalwart Republican."—Morgantown Post.

Hon. John D. Hewitt is more than likely to be one of the delegates-at-large from this state to the national Republican convention. Mr. Hewitt is one of the most active and prominent Republican leaders in West Virginia, and deserves this recognition of his services at the hands of his party. None have excelled, and few equaled him in organizing the party and effectively working for the cause of Republicanism in this section of the state.—Flat Top Monitor (Rep.).

William C. Clayton, of the Keyser bar, is a [Democratic] candidate for the Supreme Court of Appeals. It is generally believed that the nominee will come from east of the Alleghenies, and we are all interested in getting the best man possible. We know nothing personally of Mr. Clayton's fitness, but we see many complimentary notices of him from the press in his locality.—Martinsburg Statesman (Dem.).

Judge A. N. Campbell, of this county, requests us to state that the announcement that he is a candidate for judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia now being circulated by the state press and emanating originally from the Wheeling Register is wholly unwarranted. He is not and will not be a candidate for that position.—Monroe Watchman (Dem.).

It seems that Capt. B. B. Doyener will lead the Republicans of the First district to victory this fall. We look upon him as a sure winner. The man who knocked the sprouts off of Senator Falkner in 1890 will have his own fun with the sounding brass which now misrepresents the First district in Congress.—Berkeley Republican.

A Clarksburg correspondent of the Wheeling INTELLIGENCER suggests Gen. R. S. Northcott for one of the delegates from this Congressional district, to the Republican National Convention. The General is an old wheel horse in his party and would faithfully represent the Republicans of this district.—Clarksburg News (Dem.).

Hon. J. S. Iyer, of Braxton county, is being strongly urged by his friends as a candidate for the auditorship on the Republican state ticket. Mr. Iyer is one of the best known and most popular Republicans in the state, is a man of marked ability and would make a strong candidate.

Andy Edmiston can count on the newspapers if he cares to contest with Mr. Pendleton for Congress in the First district. Even the far off Shepherdstown Register, wails aloud for him.—Parkersburg Sentinel (Dem.).

Hon. Andrew Edmiston is going to make it warm for Pendleton in the congressional convention. It don't matter which gets the nomination Doyener will be the representative from this district.—Weston Republican.

Mr. Wheeling Register, here are our sympathies. But don't monkey with the buzz-saw hereafter, sonny. The INTELLIGENCER man is loaded and you want to let him severely alone.—Berkeley Republican.

Gen. I. H. Duval, of Brooke county, will probably be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Auditor. A better nomination could hardly be made.—Preston County Journal (Rep.).

The booms of the different democratic candidates is very like their free coinage idea—subject to fluctuation.—Berkeley Republican.

A COWARDLY POLICY. The "Register" advises West Virginia Congressmen to straddle the silver issue.

We believe the West Virginia delegation will do their duty in a great service and themselves credit by voting to narrow to postpone the consideration of the bill at this time. Such a vote would commit them for or against free coinage. It would simply put them on record of placing the question on the shelf for the present, an act which it belongs until more vital and important legislation is considered.

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

The highest velocity ever given to a cannon-ball is estimated at 1,626 feet per second, being equal to a mile in 3.2 seconds. The velocity of the earth at the equator due to its rotation on its axis, is 1,000 miles per hour, or a mile in 3.6 seconds. Therefore, if a cannon-ball was fired due west, and could maintain its initial velocity, it would beat the sun in its apparent journey around the earth.

It is suggested that the horses in London shall be shod with cork, not for the prevention of colds, but because of the adhesive qualities of the material and the diminution of the constant jar, which inevitably results in some disease of the leg.
